How It's Made For You can help you

Swallowing is a semiautomatic process. It's the movement of muscles of the respiratory and gastrointestinal tracts to propel food from the mouth to the stomach. When this goes wrong in any way repeatedly or consistently, it's called dysphagia. The It's Made For You range is designed for the International Dysphagia Diet Standardisation Initiative (IDDSI) framework standards, and includes valuable nutrition. The use of pre-prepared meals such as the It's Made For You range can be a practical time-saver and bring peace of mind to the person with dysphagia. They can form an integral part of living with dysphagia at home.

Wendy, Oct 2021

“My husband enjoys your puréed meals, as a sufferer of motor neurone he has great difficulty swallowing so thank you for your puréed meals, he really enjoys them.”

“It’s Made for You provides a great solution for people living with dysphagia and can help to ensure those following a texture modified diet have access to safe, tasty and nutritious food. I recommend the Made For You range to ensure the nutritional needs of people with dysphagia are met.”

Caroline, Dietitian

“It takes the hassle and worry out of preparing texture-modified meals. Many people with swallowing difficulties can still make these meals for themselves using a microwave, for example. There’s a lot of choice and people can enjoy the food they’ve always preferred knowing it’s also safe and nutritious.”
